Being the world's leading industrial online auctioneer provides GoIndustry DoveBid with a wealth of data from around the world. These internal transactions are stored in a proprietary database called AIM (Asset, Industry & Market) Intelligence. AIM has over 1.5 million records of past transactions and valuations, and it allows us to remain up-to-date on real-time values and industry trends. This data gives our valuation professionals the 'evidence' and industry data points information that provides accurate, transparent valuations which stand far above adversarial reviews.

Our Specialist Services include:

- Asset Life Studies
- Cross-Border Advisory Services
- Detailed Exit Strategies
- Market Analysis
- Sector Analysis

Asset intelligence is the application of specialist knowledge, unique in-house data, research, and sector experience to provide our clients with timely, accurate, transparent, evidence based opinions of value.

Reliable asset intelligence empowers clients to make informed strategic decisions with regard to their industrial assets, identifying the true value of an asset for internal planning purposes. In addition to this extensive and timely asset intelligence, technical expertise and skills, we offer a team of the best valuation professionals in our industry who are committed to their client relationships.

Together, our focus is to help all our customers succeed in solving complex problems and making informed, strategic business decisions with regard to their assets.
